A collaboration of more than 100 community partners has come together to create the Oregon Worker Relief Fund, a rapid community-based system that provides temporary financial support to Oregonians who have been excluded from other safety net programs during the pandemic.

Oregon immigrant families served by the OWRF ranged in size from single-person households to large families. 83% supported minor children; 64% had at least 2 dependent minor children.

Our Digital Inclusion Principle: Build skills for a post-pandemic civic space. 17% of payments were instantly delivered by mobile phone.

The Oregon Worker Relief Fund provides an opportunity for institutional philanthropy and individual donors, large and small, to support immigrant Oregon workers and ensure our collective prosperity.

Data analysis by a collaboration of more than 100 community partners has come together to create the Oregon Worker Relief Fund, a rapid community-based system that provides temporary financial support to Oregonians who have been excluded from other safety net programs during the pandemic.

Oregon is defined and enriched by diverse experiences, cultures, and traditions that connect neighborhoods to statehood.

The Oregon Worker Relief Fund provides an opportunity for institutional philanthropy and individual donors, large and small, to support immigrant Oregon workers and ensure our collective prosperity.

Oregon is defined and enriched by diverse experiences, cultures, and traditions that connect neighborhoods to statehood.

Applicants can apply for relief by going to workerrelief.org!